

Ten Points of Light to Take Back the Night

Thursday

October 26th

Wheeling Jesuit
University Campus

Let your light shine as Wheeling Jesuit University becomes one of “10 Points of Light” in a worldwide effort to raise awareness and show support for victims of sexual violence.

We welcome you to join in a day of free community events as WJU hosts the 10 Points of Light event for the first time ever in West Virginia.

Schedule of Events

All Day	Luminary Design and Coloring Table Design a special luminary to honor a survivor at the 8:30 vigil	B-Room
2:00 - 3:00	Bystander Intervention Training Learn how to step in when someone's in trouble	CET Erickson Alumni Center
3:00 - 4:00	“Sexversations” Play Giant Jenga and get your most pressing questions answered!	The RATT
4:00 - 5:30	Screening of “Audrie & Daisy” followed by Q&A Two teenagers tell their story of sexual assault & the aftermath	The RATT
5:30 - 7:30	Sexual Harassment and Rape Prevention Class Learn basic self-defense from the Wheeling PD	CET Erickson Alumni Center
7:30 - 8:30	Yoga for Peace & Healing Open to all skill and practice levels	Troy Theater
8:30	Worldwide Event: Moment of Silence & Vigil Worldwide 10 Points of Light moment of silence for victims of sexual violence	Chapel Plaza (Belltower)

For more information, please contact

David Hacker, Title IX Coordinator
Wheeling Jesuit University
dhacker@wju.edu | 304-243-2639

- All events are free & open to the public -

