

SEXUAL ASSAULT ON CAMPUS: RESPONDING TO STUDENTS

A STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE FOR FACULTY AND STAFF

If a student discloses a sexual assault to you:

Step 1: Care

Care for the student

- Ensure they are safe
- Provide non-judgmental support

Step 2: Connect

Connect the student with resources

- Confidential
- Non-Confidential

Step 3: Contact

Contact Title IX Coordinator

David Hacker: 304-243-2639
 dhacker@wju.edu *you must report the incident to David Hacker

Support/Reporting Options:

Confidential:

Sexual Assault Help Center 24 hour hotline 800-884-7242 advocates for primary and secondary survivors crisis intervention and ongoing support information programs

University Counseling Service 304-243-2081
 education, assessment, intervention, outreach, consultation, and referrals for students

Campus Ministry
 Fr. Hadi 304-243-2385

Non-Confidential:

Campus Security Provides assistance with medical treatment and pursuing legal action both on campus and off campus Will take a report from a student and submit it for formal investigation which involves asking the student to describe the incident.

Title IX Coordinator
 David Hacker 304-243-2639
 Oversees University's response to sexual misconduct reports Ensures appropriate measures are taken to address all reports

Deputy Title IX Coordinators

Mary Lu Adams, Student Services 304-243-2350 Carrie Hanna, Athletics 304-243-2176

For more information on sexual assault policy and resources go to:

wju.edu/titleix